

I Love My
Librarian!
2009 Award

I Love My Librarian Award

Librarians in our nation's 123,000 libraries make a difference in the lives of millions of people everyday. Now is your chance to shine the spotlight on a librarian at your public, school, college, community college or university library!

Nominate Your Librarian!

Up to 10 librarians will receive $5,000 and will be honored at a reception in New York hosted by The New York Times.

Nominations open on August 17 and must be received by October 9, 2009.

Find nomination forms, information on the award, and more at www.ilovelibraries.org/ilovemylibrarian.

Winners will be notified by November 2009. In addition to the $5,000 award, winners will receive a plaque and a $500 travel stipend to attend a ceremony and reception held at TheTimesCenter in New York in December 2009. The winners' libraries will also receive a plaque. Winners will be profiled at www.ilovelibraries.org/ilovemylibrarian.

About the Award

The Carnegie/New York Times I Love My Librarian Award encourages library users to recognize the accomplishments of exceptional librarians. The awards program will demonstrate how librarians are improving the lives of the people in their communities.

The award is administered by the American Library Association with support from the Carnegie Corporation and The New York Times.

The award honored ten librarians in 2008. Read their biographies and find out why they won at www.ilovelibraries.org/ilovemylibrarian.
